

Publix will be closing their Miami Beach store for renovations on October 9, 2011. Renovations are expected to last twelve months and will result in additional customers and vehicles coming to Surfside. The Town is working closely with our Publix store management to provide employee parking and maximize the number of customer parking spaces available at the store.